

Tomasz Bujak

Master of Law, completed post-graduate studies at the Jagiellonian University: "Penal Fiscal and Economic Law"; Tomasz Bujak graduated also in International Relations (completion of studies without defending the degree).

Mr. Tomasz Bujak has been involved in the legal and economic issues connected with investment processes, capital market law, commercial law, economic law and issues of corporate governance, CSR and reporting based on GRI standard.

Mr. Bujak is a frequent participant of trade negotiations, investment processes: due diligence and M & A . He gained his experience during many years of his stay in the USA and Canada where he worked for Fortune 500 companies. Proxy holder for shareholders during over one hundred General Meetings of Shareholders of the companies from WIG 20,40 and 80 [WIG - capitalization-weighted stock market index of the twenty, forty and eighty largest companies on the Warsaw Stock Exchange, respectively]. Mr. Bujak frequently carries out /chairs General Meetings of Shareholders.

The participant of several dozen training sessions, conferences and seminars in law, economics, the capital market and communication in business - many times as a panelist or speaker. The author of the regular "CSR at WSE" conferences, and co-organiser of other cyclical conferences on the law and capital market, investment and (stock exchange) analyzes and Corporate Governance regulations.

Chairman of the Supervisory Boards of capital companies: Solar-Energy S.A, Investus Capital S.A., Krezus S.A., Member of the Supervisory Boards at Surtex sp. z o.o., Drewex S.A. Mr. Bujak performs managerial functions in capital companies listed on the WSE: as Vice President of the Management Board at G-Energy S.A. and Member of the Management Board at Starhedge S.A, and also in the management boards of the companies from the Starhedge Capital Group.

Mr. Bujak participated many times in the works of the parliamentary subcommittees and committees on energy, justice, "Friendly State" committee and Senate committees. In the past, Mr. Bujak was the expert in the Chancellery of the President of the Republic of Poland, Working Group - changes of the law on associations. A participant in the cycle of public consultations on the law on renewable energy sources (OZE). His pro-bono activities pertain to the support of the community in terms of legal and administrative processes and building the legal culture in civil society. Lay Judge in VI Department of Labor and Social Security of the District Court for Warszawa-Praga Południe. President of the Management Board of the Association of Socially Responsible Investors, Full Member of Polish Association of Listed Companies. 2007-2011 (two terms) Chairman of Mazovian Branch of Individual Investor Association. Since March 2011 - President of the Association of Legal Advisers. 2011-2012 - academic teacher/lecturer - International Economic Relations.

Mr. Tomasz Bujak is fluent in the English language, uses Russian at a communicative level and knows the German language.