

Tomasz Miklas

Employed at Alior Bank since 2008, during that time he performed a number of managerial functions in areas of credit, operational, liquidity and market risk management. He has many years of professional experience in management of strategic projects such as transformation of organization of work, mergers and acquisitions or implementation of new products and processes.

Until he was appointed to the Management Board of the Alior Bank, since 2021 he was the director of the Credit Risk Department and was responsible for the credit risk management of individual clients, micro-enterprises and business clients, portfolios and supervision of credit policy of Alior Bank's subsidiary - Alior Leasing. He chaired the Credit Risk and Business Initiatives Committee and was a member of the Credit Committee, the Operational Risk Committee, the Model Risk Committee and the Bank Development Committee.

In 2017-2021, he was responsible for credit risk management for business segments, including micro-enterprises and business clients.

In 2013-2017 he was responsible for the credit risk management of products for individual clients.

He is a graduate of a Computer Science and Econometrics at the Faculty of Economic Sciences at the Warsaw University and a studies in Risk Management at Financial Institutions at the Warsaw School of Economics.