

Biographic note

Robert Ługowski

He is a graduate of the program MBA Carlson School of Management, Warsaw School of Economics and Individual Scheme of Studies in Catholic University of Lublin, Technical University of Lublin and Marie Curie-Skłodowska University in Lublin.

He is Co-founder and Chairman of the Board of business angels' network "Cobin Angels", businessman, investor, an economic expert at the NCBiR and at the Jagiellonian University. He is an expert in the field of diffusion of innovation, business models and organization and development of new projects.

He has extensive experience gained while working in managerial positions in the structures of local and regional international technology companies such as Xerox, Hewlett-Packard, Atos. In 2012-2015 worked in Atos IT Services Poland where he was the Head of Business Unit and the Sales Director. He also serves a number of functions in professional and social organizations, inter alia: President of Business Students Club, Member of Polish Chamber of Information Technology and Telecommunication and Warsaw Executive MBA Alumni Association. He is initiator and co-founder of the Polish Confederation of Business Angels.