

Gertruda Uścińska

Professor doctor habilitated, lawyer. Expert and specialist in international social security law, labour law, coordination of social security systems and free movement of people in the European Union.

Academic lecturer at the University of Warsaw, head of the Center for Social Security Studies at the University of Warsaw, professor at the Institute of Labour and Social Studies. Chairwoman of Committee for Labour and Social Policy of the Polish Academy of Sciences.

Since 2016, president of the Social Insurance Institution (ZUS). Since 2020, chairwoman of the Technical Commission on Old-Age, Invalidity and Survivors' Insurance of International Social Security Association in Geneva, operating under the auspices of the International Labour Organization.

Author of numerous publications on international and European social security law, comparative social policy, public finance, public management, optimization of the cost of state public policy.