The Bank Guarantee Fund offered support to ING Bank Śląski S.A. in the process of acquisition/restructuring of Bieszczadzka SKOK. The support can be granted in the form of subsidies for coverage of the difference between the value of the property rights acquired and acquired liabilities under guaranteed funds in the accounts of the Credit Union's depositors as well as the guarantee of covering the losses resulting from the risk of the acquired property rights or Credit Union's liabilities. #### 4.5. Changes to accounting standards

In these interim condensed consolidated financial statements, the same accounting standards have been applied as in the case of the annual consolidated financial statements for the year 2016 (Annual consolidated financial statements of the ING Bank Śląski S.A. Group for the period from 1 January 2016 to 31 December 2016).

The standards and interpretations which were already issued but are still ineffective since not approved by the European Union or approved by the European Union but not previously applied by the Group were presented in the 2016 Group Annual Consolidated Financial Statements. In Q3 2017, no changes to the accounting standards were published.

In view of the ongoing process of IFRS introduction in the EU and the business run by the Company, as at the approval date of this report, there were no differences between the already effective IFRSs and the IFRSs approved by the EU in terms of the accounting principles applied by the Company.

4.6. IFRS 9 Financial instruments

The IFRS 9 “Financial Instruments” was published by the IASB in July 2014 and was adopted by the European Union in November 2016. The IFRS 9 replaces the IAS 39 “Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement” and includes classification and measurement requirements for financial assets and liabilities, impairment of financial assets and hedge accounting. The new requirements shall become effective as of 1 January 2018.

IFRS 9 implementation project management and status of works

In 2017, the project focused on implementation of the methodology developed and verification of the adopted approach to the new IFRS 9 guidelines. In 2017, the Group publishes internally parallel reports to ensure readiness as at the date of first application of the new IFRS 9 guidelines i.e. 1 January 2018.

Classification and measurement

In Q3 2017, the works concentrated on:

- precise specification and verification of adopted assumptions in the context of market interpretations occurring, and
- implementation of the guidelines regarding management of business models and SPPI criterion by embedding them in the organisational processes and operations of the Group in order to ensure compliance of financial reporting with the new IFRS 9 guidelines.

Impact

The classification and measurement of most of the Group financial assets portfolios will remain consistent with that based on the IAS 39 i.e.:

- financial assets classified as “cash loans and receivables” will still be measured at amortised cost (excluding the assets not meeting the SPPI criterion)

- debt instruments classified as “available for sale” will still be measured at fair value through other comprehensive income
- financial instruments measured at fair value through profit or loss will still be measured according to the so-far approach.

The Group is currently confirming the interpretations adopted for specific items, especially regarding the SPPI criterion (Solely Payments of Principal and Interest).

Considering the present stage of analyses, the Group expects that possible shifts of assets measured at amortised cost to assets measured at fair value will only apply to loans whose interest structure includes the leverage element. The Group investments in equity instruments which as per the current approach were measured at acquisition price will, for the most part, be measured at fair value through other comprehensive income.

The Group expects that the changed approach to financial assets measurement as a consequence of applying the new principles will not have a significant impact on the Group's equity.

The classification and measurement of financial liabilities will in essence remain the same as according to the IAS 39 guidelines.

Impairment

The high-level assumptions adopted by the Group as regards the approach to the measurement of the expected credit loss (ECL) were presented in the Group consolidated financial statements for 2016. In 2017, the methodological framework was developed for the approach to macroeconomic scenarios.

Works on implementing these assumptions are at an advanced stage.

Impact

The Group expects an increase in impairment losses which at the date of implementation of the new guidelines may negatively affect the equity. The effect will be partly levelled by the expected loss element, now included in the calculation of regulatory capital (i.e.: shortfall of credit risk adjustments relative to expected losses as per the IRB approach).

The Group expects greater variability of impairment losses, inter alia due to macroeconomic projections. The quantitative impact of applying the IFRS 9 in that regard will not be presented later than in the Group consolidated financial statements for 2017.

Hedge accounting

The high-level assumptions adopted by the Group as regards the hedge accounting were presented in the Group consolidated financial statements for 2016.

At present, the Group is implementing the requirements concerning the hedge accounting disclosures in keeping with the IFRS 7 guidelines “Financial instruments: Disclosure” as at 1 January 2018.

Quantification of impact on financial standing and own funds

Due to the ongoing methodological works and uncertainty as to the final shape of tax regulations and capital requirements regarding to transitional period for IFRS 9 impact on own funds, the comprehensive impact of implementing the IFRS 9 guidelines on the Group financial standing and own funds cannot be credibly estimated. In addition, the banking sector is now discussing together with the Polish Financial Supervision Authority the interpretation of the IFRS 9 requirements, which may influence the classification and measurement of financial assets as at 1 January 2018 and in the subsequent periods. In the opinion of the Group, disclosure of the quantitative data based on the assumptions in that regard and thereby not considering all the IFRS 9 aspects could distort the informative value of the financial statements.

5. Material accounting principles

Detailed accounting principles are presented in annual consolidated financial statements of the ING Bank Śląski S.A. Group for the period from 1 January 2016 to 31 December 2016 published on 03 March 2017 that is available on the Internet site of ING Bank Śląski S.A. (www.ingbank.pl). In Q3 2017, the Group did not make any changes to the accounting standards applied.

6. Comparability of financial data

The Group did not modify the manner of information disclosure in the interim condensed consolidated financial statements drawn up for Q3 2017 as compared with the interim condensed consolidated financial statements for Q3 2016.

The difference in the effective tax rate over three quarters of 2017 was caused first and foremost by:

- the bank levy of PLN 243.9 million (PLN 203.0 million during 3 quarters 2016) and
- the contributions to the BGF totalling PLN 126.7 million, including the contribution to the banks' guarantee fund and the contribution to the banks' compulsory resolution fund (the difference in the effective tax rate in 2016 stemmed only from the prudential fee of PLN 31.4 million during 3 quarters 2016, the other fee – namely the mandatory contribution – constituted the tax deductible cost).

In 2016, the Group changed the recognition of the interest and commission-related provisions. Prior to the change, the amount of the interest and commission-related provisions was presented as a component of the impairment loss, while after the change the amount adjusts in minus the gross carrying amount of loans and other receivables. As the change has no impact on the total assets in the consolidated statement of financial position and no material impact on the impaired portfolio coverage ratio, the Group abandoned transforming the data for previous periods.

IRS/FRA settled to market

In 3 quarter 2017, the Group joined a new service provided for by the Regulations of CCP CSD in respect of the approach to the settlement of IRS and FRA instruments. Before the change, the net exposure under the CCP CSD transactions was collateralised with the variation margin as per the collateralised to market approach. In line with the terms and conditions of the new service, the transaction exposure is settled daily based on changed market value of specific transactions (i.e. under the settled to market approach). Therefore, no variation margin is placed. The fair value of individual transactions includes the daily exposure settlement flows. Since 2006 the Group has been using a similar service for settlement of derivatives sent to the London Clearing House (LCH).

Starting with Q3 2017 reporting, the Group adjusted its recognition manner of the regulatory floor to the requirements of Article 500 of CRR No. 575/2013. The change was to unify the calculation of capital ratios with the approach applied by the parent company and is consistent with the practice adopted in EU countries. In order to calculate capital requirements, the Group recognises the supplementary amount to the overall level of capital requirements in line with the local regulator's guidelines. The changed approach to floor recognition in the calculation of capital ratios was agreed with the Polish Financial Supervision Authority. In order to fulfil the requirements of Article 500 of CRR No. 575/2013, the Group compares own funds with the regulatory floor, being 80% of the total capital requirement calculated in the standard approach in the calculation of credit risk requirement. The Group's own funds exceed the minimum set regulatory floor.

Following the effective entry as of 2 December 2017 of the Regulation of the Minister for Economic Development and Finance of 25 May 2017 on the higher risk weight for the property mortgage-backed exposures, in December 2017 the Group will change the calculation of the capital requirement amount under the property mortgage-backed exposures in the following manner:

1. risk weight change from 100% to 150% for property mortgage-backed exposures when the principal or interest instalment amount depends on the FX movements, and
2. change from 50% to 80% of the property market value relative to the part of the loan backed with the residential property for which a preferential risk weight of 35% may be applied.

The Group estimates the total impact of the above two changes at approximately 0.17 p.p.

Since January 2017, the Bank's calculation of own funds has included 80% of unrealised profits and 100% of unrealised losses from the valuation of available-for-sale financial assets presented in the revaluation reserve (as per Article 171a of the Banking Law). In 2016, the Bank recognised 60% of unrealised profits and 100% of unrealised valuation losses, respectively, in the calculation of own funds.

Under Regulation (EU) No. 241/2014 with regard to regulatory technical standards for own funds requirements for institutions and the Polish Financial Supervision Authority's decision of 15 September 2016, the Group recognised the Bank's net profit of PLN 308.5 million for the period from 01 January 2016 to 30 June 2016 in their own funds as at 30 September 2016 and 31 December 2016. By virtue of the Polish Financial Supervision Authority decision of 23 October 2017, in subsequent reporting periods the Group will include the Bank's net profit of PLN 425.1 million for the period from 1 January 2017 to 30 June 2017 in the calculation of own funds.

8. Factors potentially affecting the financial results in the following quarters

- According to the ING Bank Śląski S.A. economists, the upcoming months of 2017 should see a further increase in the GDP (from 4% y/y to 4.5% y/y), and moreover, the extraordinary growth rate will also sustain over 2018 (4.1% y/y). After last year's slowdown being a consequence of a slump in delivery of projects co-financed from the EU funds, market conditions have noticeably improved following, inter alia, high household expenditures (the effect of a good situation in the labour market and the 500+ programme) as well as the start of projects from the new budget perspective (2014-2020). Investment activities will reach their climax most probably next year. In the opinion of ING Bank Śląski S.A. economists, along with the fading away of the effects of the 500+ programme activation, consumption will decline in the next quarters to the level approximate to the average GDP growth.
- The ING Bank Śląski S.A. economists expect the high pay pressure in the domestic economy to continue. The growth rate of salaries and wages in the next quarters will in all likelihood still fluctuate around 6.5% y/y. As per the Central Statistical Office research, the percentage of entrepreneurs that declare difficulties with finding employees is at the record high level; however, at the same time, junk contracts and the influx of labour force from Ukraine impede the domestic pay rise. Next year, a lower increase in minimum remuneration will also have a negative impact on the pay rise.
- As forecast by the ING Bank Śląski S.A. economists, the CPI inflation in Poland will fall from 2.2% y/y to 1.5% y/y in Q4 2017, while throughout 2018 it will remain below the NBP inflation target (2.5% y/y).

In H1 2018, the annual inflation growth rate will be curbed by, inter alia, the negative underlying effects regarding food and fuel prices. The ING Bank Śląski S.A. economists are of the opinion that a moderate inflation pressure and a gradual increase in investment projects will make the Monetary Policy Council keep interest rates at the unchanged level until Q4 2018.

- A marked improvement in tax collection (of VAT, in particular) shows that despite the growing budgetary burden (following, among others, the activation of the social benefits programme in 2016, lowering of the retirement age as of October 2017 and starting of public investment projects), the deficit of the public finance sector will settle clearly below 2.5% of GDP in 2017-2018.
- Escalation of the conflict with the European Commission over respecting the rule of law in Poland is grinding to a halt. Rating agencies did not signal that institutional changes would adversely affect the viability assessment in the upcoming quarters. However, the long-term budgetary burden driven by the lower retirement age will most probably prevent the rating agencies from upgrading the ratings.

15. Segmentation of revenue and financial results of the Group

15.1.1. Segments of operation

The management of ING Bank Śląski is conducted within the areas defined in the Bank's business model.

The Bank's business model, above all for the purpose of management reporting, includes division of clients into two main segments:

- retail banking segment.
- corporate banking segment.

The segments are separated based on the financial (especially turnover, level of collected assets) and subject-related criteria. The specific rules of putting clients to respective segments are governed by the clients segmentation criteria specified in the Bank's internal regulations.

ING Bank Śląski S.A. has separated in organisational terms the operations performed by the Bank Treasury. The Bank Treasury manages short-term and long-term liquidity risk in line with the effective regulations and risk appetite internally set at the Bank, manages interest rate risk and invests surpluses obtained from business lines while maintaining the liquidity buffer in the form of liquid assets. The Bank Treasury's net income on operations is allocated to the business lines considering its support function for the Bank's business lines.

15.1.2. Retail banking segment

Within the framework of retail banking, the Bank provides services for individual customers (segments of mass customers and wealthy customers) and for sole traders.

This activity is analysed by the leading products, including i.e.: credit products (overdraft on the savings and settlement account - ROR, loans related to cards, hire purchase loans, housing loans, mortgage loans), deposit products (current accounts, term deposits, savings accounts), structured product, ING fund units, brokerage services and bank cards.

15.1.3. Corporate banking segment

Corporate banking area encompasses as follows:

- providing services to institutional clients,
- Financial Markets products.

Services to institutional clients encompasses strategic clients, large corporate entities and mid-sized companies. For corporate activity, the Bank provides reporting broken down by leading products covering i.e. loan products (working loans, investment loans), deposit products (current accounts, term deposits and negotiated deposits, savings accounts), financial markets products, trust services, capital market operations conducted by the parent and products related to leasing and factoring services offered by ING Lease (Polska) Sp. z o.o. and ING Commercial Finance Polska S.A.

Financial Markets products encompass operations performed in money and capital markets, conducted both on the proprietary basis as well as for the customers' benefit. Within the framework of this activity, currency, money and derivative instrument market products and securities operations (treasury securities, shares and notes) are specified.

15.1.4. Measurement

The measurement of the segment's assets and liabilities, segment's revenue and costs is based on the accounting standards applied by the Bank, included in notes describing applied accounting standards. In particular, both internal and external interest income and costs for individual segments are determined with the use of the transfer price system within the Risk Transfer System (RTS). Transfer prices are defined based on the yield curve for a given currency that is common for assets and liabilities. The transfer price that is determined for the products being assets and liabilities with the same position on the yield curve is identical. The original transfer price – coming from the product measurement regarding the yield curve can be modified and the factors adjusting the transfer price can be the following: a premium for obtainment of long-term liquidity, matching of the Bank's position, a hedging cost for sophisticated products and the pricing policy. Thereafter, based on quotation rates available at news services, yield curves are developed using mathematical equations. Revenue, costs, results, assets and liabilities for a given segment account for elements that are directly attributable to the segment in question, as well as element that may be attributed to that segment based on reasonable premises. The Bank presents segment's interest income reduced by the cost of the interest. In 9 months 2017, the Bank revised the allocation key for the ALCO's income. The data for previous periods presented herein were made comparable.
