

Katarzyna Sulowska

In December 2011, she was appointed by the Supervisory Board of Alior Bank to the position of Vice President of the Managing Board. Before, between January 2008 and November 2011, she managed the Credit Risk Department at Alior Bank. In her function, she was responsible for developing credit policies, product principles and methodological assumptions, designing and implementing credit check processes, and monitoring and collection processes. In 2002–2007, she was Managing Director of Retail Collection Department at Bank BPH where she was responsible, among others, for managing the integration process of two collection structures of Bank BPH and Bank PBK, for the implementation of the new process-based approach and the IT system to support the process. She was also responsible for performing one of the first bundled debt sale transactions. Between 1998 and 2001, she worked for Citibank Polska where she was Head of the Collection Department. She started her career path at the Regional Accounting Chamber in Kraków in the Information, Analyses and Training Department

Michał Jan Chyczewski

Prior to joining Alior Bank Management Team Mr. Chyczewski led group transactional consulting for financial institution in EY. In the past he was employed in Bank Gospodarstwa Krajowego (Managing Director), PKO BP S.A. (first Vice President of Kredobank in Ukraine), Bank BPH (senior economist) and MCI investment group (vice president of Private Equity Managers S.A., Management Board Member of MCI Capital TFI S.A., Board Member of Invia AS w Czech Republic). He started his professional career in 2002 in consulting (Andersen Warsaw office). In years 2007-2009 he was a deputy minister in Treasury Ministry responsible for financial institutions sector. He was also nominated in 2015 as a Permanent Representative of Poland in World Trade Organization in Geneva. Mr. Chyczewski graduated from HSG in St. Gallen (International Executive MBA). He is also an alumni of Harvard Business School managerial M&A program and Warsaw School of Economics (MIS department).

Filip Gorczyca

In 2016 he was employed in Medicover Group as Investment Director responsible for Stockholm IPO of this company in May 2017.

Since 2004 till 2016 he worked for international consulting company PwC where since 2011 as a deputy director he was responsible for capital markets and financial reporting services in CEE. He was also involved in financial audit. Mr Gorczyca is a certified public accountant (biegły rewident) and holds ACCA diploma. He is an alumni of Harvard Business School and Warsaw School of Economics (Finance and Banking department).